Re: Docket No. 02-00058

Dear Mr. Booher,

I was under the impression, that you were going to be available to answer questions about the exhibits during the time you scheduled to view the exhibits.

When I called you at 1:55pm EST, I was told that you were unavailable, and was offered to be routed to voicemail.

You should be aware that I had to take time off from work and pay an expert witness to be there.

You instructed Mr. Russell and I not to ask Mr. Terry Crutchfield any questions, but to contact you directly.

I do not have the financial resources to take time off from work, and pay an expert witness while we wait for an indeterminable time for a call to be returned.

In order to keep my costs down, my expert witness Mr. Russell advised me not to pursue the numerous questions I had, as the material appears to be irrelevant, and immaterial to this case. At the hearing I will ask that these two exhibits be ruled irrelevant, and immaterial.

Yours truly,

Michael Van Wies
